Competitor injury during heat

If a competitor is injured or has a substantial fall during a heat, he or she may opt to suspend the run, and or continue with the remaining time after a rest or injury analysis is completed. The preferred reschedule method will be that the competitors existing time is moved to the bottom of the division.

Sportsmanship

- All competitors should demonstrate good sportsmanship at all times.
- Follow the direction of the event staff.
- Respect all competitors, league officials, judges and spectators.

Rain date

Most events are held on Saturdays. If it rains the event may be postponed for the following day, however, will be decided in accordance with the local council closer to the date. Live updates will be posted on the YMCA Skate Services' website and other social networking sites.

Competitors' code of conduct

- Competitors shall not use abusive or disrespectful language.
- Competitors shall not taunt or humiliate any other participant.
- Competitors shall not abuse, mistreat or mishandle any event equipment or property (e.g. throwing helmets or boards)

How the competitions are judged

As a general rule, it is important to note that these 8 basic principles of skate / BMX competition judging will be used:

- All contestants will be judged on the amount of tricks they land and their quality
- The greater the technical difficulty, the greater the score.
- Contestants will be marked down if they continue to do the same tricks.
- Tricks done after the time don't count. If you want one more shot - that's fine - it won't be tallied towards your score.
- All Judges have been skating or riding for a long time. They only make decisions based on their professional opinion. If you disagree with a decision or competition outcome please don't take it personally.
- The points system is only there as a guide; the final decision is for the judges to discuss and make based on event and run factors.
- If you have a question you must ask the head judge. Please don't disturb judges during the heats.
- Please remember the aim at these events is to get together, have roll and celebrate your talents. If you want to truly be the best you have to practice!
